

2017 /2018 Addendum
for the 2014/2015
University of Swaziland
Calendar

PREAMBLE

1. A student registered in the non-Credit System (continuing student) shall be governed by the 2014/2015 University Calendar and 2015/2016 Addendum.
2. The Regulations in this Addendum replace similar Regulations in the 2014/2015 University Calendar.
3. There are new Regulations which have been included in this Addendum.

STUDENT INFORMATION

- 1.20 Application for Entry
- 1.22 No application can be considered if all the forms and other requirements outlined in the admission regulations have not been received by the due date.

010.00 ACADEMIC GENERAL REGULATIONS

- 010.12 If a student is unable to attend classes due to illness, he/she should notify the Dean of Student Affairs or Co-ordinator of Student Services in the case of the Institute of Distance Education of this fact as soon as possible. Certification from a recognised health officer is required in support. Prior permission or good supporting evidence will be necessary for circumstances other than ill health.
- 010.13 A student who is found to have gained admission at the University on the basis of fraud shall be de-registered and dismissed from the University. Such person shall forfeit any money he/she may have paid to the University.
- 010.14
  - (a) The University shall withdraw a certificate or diploma or degree awarded to any person who may be found to have been awarded such certificate, diploma or degree on the basis of fraud and such person shall forfeit any money he/she may have paid to the University.
  - (b) The University shall withdraw a certificate or diploma or degree awarded to any person who may be found to have been awarded such certificate, diploma or degree on the basis of an error on the part of the University.
- 010.15 The registration form, current University Calendar and any other regulation applicable during the year/semester of registration shall be the contractual agreement between the student and the University.
- 010.16 Unless otherwise directed by the Senate, a student shall be bound by the terms of the University Calendar for the current year of registration.

Addendum for the 2014/2015 University Calendar

010.17 Notwithstanding Regulation 010.16, the 2008/2009 University Calendar in respect of:

(a) Unsemesterised course structure;

and

(b) External Examiners, shall continue to be applicable with respect to Year 6 in the Institute of Distance Education (IDE) .

010.18 It shall be the responsibility of each student to familiarise himself/herself with the contents of the current copy of the University Calendar.

010.19 Copies of the Calendar shall be kept in the Library, offices of Faculty Tutors/ Academic Coordinators, office of the Dean of Student Affairs, offices of the Faculty Administrators and may be made accessible electronically.

010.20 APPLICATION TO THE UNIVERSITY

010.21 No application can be considered if all the forms and other requirements outlined in the admission regulations have not been received by the due date.

010.22 An offer of admission is valid only for the academic year for which it is made. A candidate who, for whatever reason, is unable to take it up may reapply in the normal way in subsequent years.

010.23 A final year UNISWA student is eligible to apply for a higher qualification at the University. Such an applicant's recommendation shall be made after the release of the end-of-year results.

010.30 REGISTRATION

010.31 Registration shall take place at the beginning of the academic year/semester or at such time as may be prescribed by the Senate.

010.32 A student who has not paid all previous semester fees, in full, shall not be allowed to register for the subsequent semester.

010.33 The fees for any semester must be paid at registration per semester in the following manner:

(a) A student who is sponsored by Government and/or one or more reputable local and international organisation(s) must provide written proof of sponsorship before he/she is allowed to proceed with the registration process. These sponsors will be required to pay the fees in full in the first semester.

- (b) A self-sponsored student shall normally pay the tuition fees in full at registration. A student who is unable to pay full fees may be allowed to pay tuition fees in tranches in the following manner:
    - (i) An initial payment of 40% of the tuition fees for the first semester plus administration fees shall be paid at registration at the beginning of the first semester.
    - (ii) The balance of the first semester fees shall be paid by the first of November of that semester.
    - (iii) The first instalment of the second semester fees, which shall be equivalent to 40% of the total tuition fees for that semester shall be payable at registration in January.
    - (iv) The balance of the second semester fees shall be paid by the first of March of that semester.
  - (c) A repeating student shall pay the full amount for courses per semester.
  - (d) Bank guaranteed cheques should be crossed and made payable to the University of Swaziland. Only cash payments may be made directly to the University's bank account indicated by the Bursar to students and sponsors.
  - (e) Scholarships administered by the University shall be awarded on the understanding that any moneys received on behalf of the student will not be repayable should the student abandons his/her studies or deregisters without the permission of the University.
  - (f) Tuition fees for the first semester are not refundable after the registration period. Second semester fees shall only be refundable to the sponsor if the student formally withdraws from the University before the first day of the semester (first day of lectures).
  - (g) A student receiving instruction from the University who owes it any amount shall have his results withheld until such fees are paid in full.
- 010.34 Late Registration is permitted for up to seven (7) working days after the commencement of lectures as stipulated in the University Calendar. Registration beyond this grace period may be permitted by the Vice Chancellor for a period of up to seven (7) working days, provided evidence of official delay beyond the control of the student is produced.
- 010.35 A student who wishes to drop a course (s)/subject (s) shall do so by completing a form obtainable from the Faculty Tutors/Coordinators within six (6) weeks after the commencement of lectures in that semester. There shall be no refund for dropped course(s).
- 010.36 A student who wishes to change his/her specialisation shall apply to the Senate. Such an application shall be done before the end of the registration period of that semester.

010.40 EXEMPTIONS

- 010.41 A student may be exempted from taking a course(s) under the following conditions:
- (a) A student who has been admitted into a programme and is a holder of a certificate/diploma/degree from the University of Swaziland may be exempted from an equivalent course(s) offered in that programme.
  - (b) A student who has taken and passed a course(s) at the University of Swaziland can bank credits up to a maximum of ten consecutive semesters. Such a student, upon re-joining the University, shall be exempted from the course(s) if the course(s) and / or programme is still offered. Once such exemption has been granted, the programme for which the student is currently registered will be credited with the original mark(s) obtained for the credit course(s) and the corresponding grade points.
  - (c) Exemption may be given to a student if such a student took a course(s) for credit at another recognised university or institution within ten semesters prior to registration at the University of Swaziland.
- 010.42 Normally, a student shall be required to apply for exemption from a course(s) done and passed at the University of Swaziland or at a recognised university or institution shall do so in writing to the Director (Academic) within 14 days after registration period in that semester.
- 010.43 The Dean of the Faculty/Director of the Academic Institute, in consultation with the head of the relevant department, may grant exemption from a course(s) done and passed at the University of Swaziland or another recognised university or institution.
- 010.44 A student may only be refunded for a maximum of two exemptions

010.50 CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT REGULATIONS

- 010.51 A student shall be required to sit for a minimum of two tests per semester.
- (a) If a student fails to attend a scheduled test for no valid reason, no special test will be set and he/she will be awarded a zero mark for the missed test.
  - (b) If a student misses a test due to ill-health or other valid reasons, it is the student's responsibility to submit a medical certificate (or good supporting evidence) to the Dean of Student Affairs as soon as possible but no later than two working days from the date it (the medical certificate or supporting document) indicates they can return to class. It is the student's responsibility to also inform the relevant course lecturer(s) during this time to arrange a special test(s).
  - (c) Normally, a special test will be written as soon as practically possible after a student's return to class.

030.00 GENERAL ACADEMIC REGULATIONS FOR CERTIFICATES AND DIPLOMAS

030.57 FAIL AND REPEAT, FAIL AND DISCONTINUE

- (a) A student who fails a course(s) at the end of a semester shall be allowed to repeat the failed course(s) on a part time basis twice. A student who is allowed to repeat the failed course(s), and fails for the third time, shall be discontinued from the programme.
- (b) Normally, an assessment of a repeating student's performance will be made at the end of each academic year, unless the student is discontinued or satisfies the requirements of the year and/or programme in the first semester.
- (c) A first year student who obtains an overall average of 35% or less will fail and will be required to discontinue from the programme.
- (d) (i) A first year student who abandons classes without written approval of Senate will be awarded the result "Fail and Discontinue".
- (ii) A repeating student who abandons classes without written approval of Senate will be awarded the result "Fail and Discontinue".
- (iii) A non-repeating student in any other year of study who abandons classes will be awarded the result "Fail and Re-apply". Such an applicant will be subject to the consideration by the Admissions Committee in the usual way (obtaining, completing and submitting an application form by the first working day of March).
- (e) (i) A student who is awarded a "Fail and Repeat" result and is unable to resume studies within the following two years shall apply to the Senate for re-admission not later than 30 June preceding the commencement of the academic year for which re-admission is - sought. The Senate shall determine the level of entry and courses to be taken by such student.

- (ii) A student who is awarded a “Fail and re-apply” result and is unable to resume studies within the following two years shall apply to the Senate for re-admission not later than 30 June preceding the commencement of the academic year for which re-admission is sought. The Senate shall determine the level of entry and courses to be taken by such student.
  - (iii) A student who is awarded a “Proceed” result but is unable to resume studies within the following two academic years shall apply to the Senate for re-admission not later than 30 June preceding the commencement of the academic year for which re-admission is sought. The Senate shall determine the level of entry and courses to be taken by such student.
- (f) Senate may fail and discontinue any student from the University or permit him/her to repeat the year if his/her work is not found satisfactory as specified in the Special Regulations of the Faculty concerned. The term “Fail and Discontinue” in this context shall mean as indicated below:-
- “Fail and Discontinue” means that a person has to discontinue from the programme in which he has failed, but not from the University, and is free to apply for admission into another programme. Such an applicant will be subject to consideration by the Admissions Committee in the usual way.
- (g) When a student is allowed to repeat a course(s) before proceeding to the next year of his/her programme, any relevant subject averages and the overall average shall be re-calculated using the new results. The transcript of any such student shall reflect both the original and the new results.

030.72 TRANSFERS

- 030.74(c) A student who is allowed to transfer by the Senate and fails to take up the offer immediately shall apply for admission in the normal way.

030.76 WITHDRAWAL FROM STUDIES

- 030.81 (b) The level of entry and the courses to be taken by a student who withdrew and was unable to resume studies within the two following academic years, shall be approved by the Senate.
